

THE FOOD ASSEMBLY

www.foodassembly.com

Let's get together to buy the best food available, directly from local farmers and foodmakers.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

1 Find the closest assembly
Go on foodassembly.com and join your local Food Assembly.

2 Order online
Browse the online market and fill your basket with fresh food: vegetables, fruits, eggs, dairy products, meat, bread, honey and much more!

3 Collect your order
Pick up the products you ordered at a local friendly venue and meet the people who rear, catch, make and bake your food.

A FAIR AND TRANSPARENT MODEL

Through The Food Assembly, producers fix their own prices and receive more than 80% of their sales (in comparison to 20-40% via supermarkets).

There are currently more than 70 Food Assemblies in the UK.

More than 600 farmers & foodmakers deliver local products to Food Assemblies every week.

28 miles is the average distance of a product sold through The Food Assembly.

Just over 8% goes to the local organisers for their work in managing the community.

Just over 8% goes to The Food Assembly for managing the website and offering tools & support.
